

QUEEN ON MARRIAGE

Cincinnati University Professor
Asked to Resign

HE WAS FORCED TO LEAVE VASSAR

Prof. Bawden, Who Refuses to Quit,
Advocates a Union Based On Comradeship Alone, But Says He Has Not Taught This.

CINCINNATI, O., May 12.—H. Heath Bawden, professor of philosophy at the University of Cincinnati, announced today that he would refuse to accede to a request by President C. W. Dabney that Bawden resign because of his private views on marriage and public views on sociology. He came to Cincinnati one year ago from Vassar. He admits that his radical views on marriage and problems in his own family caused him to be dismissed from Vassar, but he denies that he has taught these views to students here.

Prof. Bawden says that he believes in an ideal state in which there will exist an comradeship of the sexes, based on comradeship, and Mr. Dabney thinks that too revolutionary an idea for an instructor to hold in the University of Cincinnati.

In a letter to President Dabney, Prof. Bawden wrote: "I agree with you about the conditions under which I came to the University of Cincinnati. It was not fair to you to suppress the real occasion of my leaving Vassar."

Persuaded to Keep Quiet.
"I protested, at the time, against leaving Vassar under what seemed to me false pretenses, but all my friends, without exception, urged it was the right thing to do. I now see it differently, and it was the unwillingness to further opportunize that led me to the decision not to discuss the matter here."

President Dabney made the following statement this afternoon:

"No man can, either by word or manner of life, teach things destructive of the very foundation of human society in any institution for which I am responsible. Prof. Bawden has stated enough to make my position in the matter clear to the public."

"It appears proper to say, in addition, and by way of extension only, that I called in Dr. Herrick, professor of neurology in the University of Chicago, the lifelong friend and brother-in-law of Prof. Bawden, to see what he could do, and he tells me that he thinks there is a pathological condition back of the case."

Wife Says There's An Affinity.
Mrs. T. Bawden, after suggesting that there had been another woman who attracted her husband's attention, said:

"I should take a malicious pleasure in telling her name if I were disposed to refer to her at all. My husband did not always hold such peculiar views on marriage. It is only within the past two years that I have noticed their growth and development, and I never paid much attention to them until he began to practice them. I do not mean to say that he has done any wrong, except to me, and I believe that he personally is clean and upright."

Prof. Bawden has been married twelve years, his wife having been a teacher in the Granville, Ohio, schools, while he was an instructor in the university at that place. He and his wife are reported to have lived apart for several years, even though residing in the same home, and the demand for Bawden's resignation is said to have followed Mrs. Bawden's statement of the conditions of her home life.

A CARD

To the Democratic Voters of Newport News:

In making the announcement of my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the Mayoralty of the City, it is proper to say, that I am not thrusting myself upon you, but that I do so at the earnest solicitation of many of our citizens. To vote intelligently, you should know the principles and policies for which I stand.

(1.) There should be an honest, impartial and fearless administration of and an absolute obedience to the laws. Every person who obeys the law should have its protection.

(2.) Civic improvement should be the aim of all who have the good of the City at heart. Nothing adds more to the attractiveness of a City, than cleanliness, good order and an honest administration of its affairs.

(3.) Municipal taxes should be kept at as low a rate as possible consistent with a proper and economical administration of the affairs of the City.

(4.) The public schools should have the fostering care of the municipal government, to the end that every child may acquire knowledge, necessary to his success in life.

(5.) Every effort should be made to attract industries to our City, giving employment to people already here, and attracting many more.

Providence seems to have marked out Hampton Roads as the harbor of the future metropolis of the Atlantic Seaboard. Why shall not Newport News be developed into that Metropolis?

The past is behind us, the future is before us. Forgetting those things that are behind let us press forward to the goal of future prosperity and happiness.

My engagements are such as to make it impossible for me to see all of you. I, therefore, in this manner, appeal to all who agree with me as to the principles and policies which should guide the administration of our municipal affairs, to vote for me at the coming primary.

Respectfully, your fellow citizen,
MARTY JONES.

SIMPLIFYING THE SEARCH FOR "SOMEBODY"

The Merchant knows that every article in his store is a bargain for SOMEBODY—for somebody who lives in his store territory.

The real estate operator and agent knows that every piece of property on their lists is a "bargain" for SOMEBODY—for someone who lives here, or hereabouts.

The landlord knows that his tenanted store, or office or house, or apartment is exactly what SOMEBODY is looking for—somebody who MAY live actually in the neighborhood.

The householder, with a furnished room to rent knows that to SOMEONE in town it would appeal as the prettiest "one-room home" possible to find.

The owner of a "used but useful" article of value, no longer personally needed, knows that, to SOMEBODY in town the chance to buy it at a reasonable cash price would be welcome.

For all these people advertising in the DAILY PRESS affords the only practical way to find their special SOMEBODIES—to go into the crowd and pick out, unerringly, the "right people."
